Annual Meeting

The highlight of each year is the Annual Meeting held in December in San Francisco. Combining social activities with two days of engrossing and relevant seminars and panel discussions, the Annual Meeting brings together members, clients, and vendors from all corners of the Association's region. Nationally recognized keynote speakers help make this a highly regarded event within the industry. ADC Members enjoy a significant registration fee discount.

Legislative Representation

The combined strength of the ADC and the Association of Southern California Defense Counsel (ASCDC) is found in the political arena via the California Defense Counsel. This jointly-supported organization is among the largest lobbying organizations in Sacramento, and is solely controlled by defense attorneys. The CDC provides for a speakers' bureau, candidates' and issues PACs and a political analyst – all affording the state's defense attorneys a single voice and an opportunity to influence legislation of importance to our profession and our clients.

Relationship with the Bench

The ADC maintains a strong dialogue with the region's judiciary, both at the trial and appellate level. The ADC participates in Bench-Bar meetings, and the presence of the ADC as a "voice for the defense bar" in these meetings along with the association's Judicial Receptions, are among the most important functions of the organization. In addition, the ADC has maintained for years an active Amicus program, influencing decisions of importance to our members' practices.

We need you at the ADC – please join today! This membership special is only valid from September 1, 2019 through December 5, 2019, and only applies to civil defense attorneys who devote a significant amount of their practice to the defense of civil litigation and have never been an ADC member. Please apply via the attached application.
